Building Literacy Connections with Graphic Novels

Edited by James Bucky Carter

As teachers, we're always looking for new ways to help our students engage with texts. James Bucky Carter and the contributors to this collection have found an effective approach: use graphic novels!

Carter and his contributors tap into the growing popularity of graphic novels in this one-of-a-kind guidebook. Each chapter presents practical suggestions for the classroom as it pairs a graphic novel with a more traditional text or examines connections between multiple sources.

These creative pairings open up a double world of possibilities to all kinds of learners, from reluctant readers and English language learners to gifted students and those who are critically exploring relevant social issues.

Packed with great ideas for integrating graphic novels into the curriculum, this collection of creative and effective teaching strategies will help you and your students join the fun. 164 pp. 2007. Grades 7-12. ISBN 978-0-8141-0392-0.
