

Is Your School Focusing on Adolescent Literacy?

The National Council of Teachers of English can help.

Teachers across the nation are being challenged with questions like these . . . Sound familiar?

Pathways

- How can we support students as readers and writers while teaching challenging content?
- Many schools are trying to address issues around the achievement gap. We have identified student groups that are not achieving at targeted levels. What do we do next?
- We hear so much about students not being motivated. Is there really anything we can do about this?
- With the current emphasis on testing, how do we support students without compromising what we know constitutes good teaching?
- What does it mean to be literate in the 21st century, and what are the implications for our teaching and student learning?
