

TE Teaching English in the Two-Year College TYC

David Martins Wins TETYC's Best Article Award for 2009

The winner of TETYC's Best Article of the Year Award is "Scoring Rubrics and the Material Conditions of Our Relations with Students", by David Martins. The article appeared in the December 2008 issue.

The Best Article in TETYC Committee members were Ron Christiansen (Chair), Alexis Nelson, Stasia Callan, and Timothy McLaughlin. The award, which includes a plaque from the journal office and a cash prize provided by past editor Nell Ann Pickett, was presented at the Conference on College Composition and Communication's annual meeting in San Francisco in March.