

Title II funding—which has provided over $2 billion to states in resources for teacher recruitment, professional learning, class-size reduction and more—is in great jeopardy in the US Congress.

Email or call the House Rules Committee! (202) 225-9191

- Tell them to allow an amendment on the Labor-H bill that will restore Title II funding to the Labor-H bill.
- Tell them to oppose amendments that make any further cuts to the education budget.
- Tell them why teacher professional learning funding matters to you and describe its impact on your work, in your school, on the students you teach.

Email or call the Senate Appropriations Committee! (202) 224-7257

- Tell them to include funding for Title II in the Labor-H bill.
- Tell them that Title II funding makes possible:
 - Collaborative professional learning that builds teacher inquiry and decision-making
 - Effective literacy instruction
 - Innovative approaches for preservice training for new teachers
- Ask them to vote in support of teachers by including Title II funding in the Labor-H bill.
