

Participate in
The -LONGEST-
Short Story Ever Written
 in Lexington

Lexington author
 Ed McClanahan
 (O The Clear Moment)
 will write the starting paragraphs.

National Day on Writing
October 20th

Add your 1-250 words at one of these sites:

7 am - 9 am
Starbucks~Chevy Chase
 808 E. High Street

9 am - 11 am
Starbucks~Downtown
 325 W. Main Street

Third Street Stuff & Coffee
 257 N. Limestone

Eagle Creek Library
 101 N. Eagle Creek Dr.

The Carnegie Center
 251 W. Second Street

11 am - 1 pm
Barnes & Noble
 1932 Pavillion Way

Joseph-Beth Booksellers
 161 Lexington Green Circle

University of Kentucky
 Location TBA

The Carnegie Center
 251 W. Second Street

3 pm - 5 pm
Village Branch Library
 2185 Versailles Road

Central Library
 140 E. Main Street

Common Grounds Coffee
 343 E. High Street

The Carnegie Center
 251 W. Second Street

1 pm - 3 pm
The Morris Book Shop
 408 Southland Drive

Waldenbooks
 Fayette Mall

Northside Library
 1733 Russell Cave Road

The Carnegie Center
 251 W. Second Street

At 5:30 pm
 the celebration continues,
 featuring guest speaker
First Lady Jane Beshear
 at the Carnegie Center!
 251 W. Second Street
 Details at (859) 254-4175
CarnegieCenterBlog.blogspot.com

the Morris book shop.

Lexington
 Public Library

Also thanks to 3M

This National Day on Writing event is organized by
 The Carnegie Center
 ~the place for writers~