

Trina Strickland Randle

Trina's area of expertise includes developing effective reading and writing workshops in elementary school classrooms. As a professional development provider she has served as a Regional Literacy Coach in South Carolina, taught courses at the University of South Carolina and Winthrop University, and provided professional development workshops and study groups. Trina is committed to education because of her desire to nurture enthusiastic readers and writers. When she can help build the knowledge base of teachers, she knows she has made a difference in the lives of their students.
