Call for Nominations: The 2019 CCCC Nominating Committee invites nominations for the posts of CCCC Assistant Chair, Secretary, Executive Committee member (seven members), and 2020 Nominating Committee (five
The Nominating Committee seeks to identify CCCC members who are committed to the organization and willing to do its work. The post of Assistant Chair involves a four-year commitment, beginning in December 2019. During the first year of the term, the Assistant Chair also serves as Program Chair for the 2021 CCCC Convention. He or she becomes Associate Chair (December 2020), Chair (December 2021), and Immediate Past Chair (December 2022). The Secretary will serve a four-year term as an Officer of the CCCC Executive Committee beginning in December 2019. Members of the Executive Committee are expected to make a three-year commitment to serving CCCC, beginning in December 2019. The Executive Committee meets for a full day immediately prior to the CCCC Annual Convention in the spring as well as for two days at the NCTE Annual Convention in the fall. Executive Committee and Nominating Committee members are chosen to represent a mix of institutions and regions. The officers and Executive Committee are committed to increased recruitment, representation, and participation of members of historically underrepresented groups in every aspect of the committee’s work as well as throughout its activities. In addition, CCCC encourages the nomination of contingent, adjunct, or part-time faculty members. On the 2019 ballot, one elected position for the Executive Committee will be open to a contingent, adjunct, or part-time faculty member. Please send nominations, with biographical information, by February 20, 2019, via email to cccc@ncte.org. Members and previous candidates are encouraged to nominate themselves.

Call for Nominations: The CCCC Outstanding Book Award is presented annually for work in the field of composition and rhetoric. Each year two awards will be given: one award for a single-authored or multi-authored work and one award for an edited collection of scholarly work. Both categories will be evaluated for scholarship and research in the areas of pedagogy, practice, history, and theory. A work eligible for the 2020 award will have been published in calendar years 2018 or 2019. To be eligible for the award, nominees must be members of CCCC and/or NCTE at the time of nomination. To nominate a volume for the award, the author, editor, publisher, or reader must be a CCCC and/or NCTE member. Nominations must be received by May 1, 2019, and must include a brief statement of the book’s contribution to the profession. (Note: You do not need to send copies of the nominated book with the nomination.) Please send the statement of the book’s contribution to the CCCC Outstanding Book Award Committee at cccc@ncte.org.

Call for Resolutions: The Chair of the 2019 CCCC Resolutions Committee urges all CCCC members who care deeply about key issues, external and internal, that bear on the teaching of writing and communications to compose resolutions that can facilitate our collective efforts. Proposed resolutions will be considered for presentation at the Annual Business Meeting in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. To obtain copies of resolutions passed at recent CCCC conventions, please contact the CCCC Liaison at cccc@ncte.org, or visit the CCCC website at http://www.ncte.org/cccc/resolutions. The signatures of at least five CCCC members are required for each proposed resolution. Proposed resolutions, with these signatures, should be emailed to cccc@ncte.org. Resolutions must be emailed on or before February 27, 2019.

Call for Nominations for the 2020 CCCC Technical and Scientific Communication Awards: CCCC is accepting nominations for outstanding books and articles in technical and scientific communication in the following categories:
