Call for Exemplar Award Nominations: The CCCC Executive Committee announces a call for nominations for its Exemplar Award. This award will be presented, as occasion demands, to a person whose years of service as an exemplar for our organization represent the highest ideals of scholarship, teaching, and service to the entire profession. The Exemplar Award seeks to recognize individuals whose record is national and international in scope, or whose record is local and regional with national implications, and who set the best examples for the CCCC membership. Nominations should include a letter of nomination, four letters of support, and a full curriculum vitae. The nominating material should be sent to the CCCC Exemplar Award Committee at cccc@ncte.org. Nominations must be received by November 1, 2019.

Call for Nominations: The CCCC Stonewall Service Award is presented annually and seeks to recognize members of CCCC/NCTE who have consistently worked to improve the experiences of sexual and gender minorities within the organization and the profession. Nominations should include a letter of nomination, three to five letters of recommendation, and a full curriculum vitae. Please send nominations to cccc@ncte.org by November 1, 2019. Please visit <https://cccc.ncte.org/cccc/awards/stonewall> for further details.

CCC 71:1 / SEPTEMBER 2019

The CCCC Tribal College Faculty Fellowship offers financial aid to selected faculty members currently working at tribally controlled colleges to attend the annual Conference on College Composition and Communication (CCCC) Convention, March 25–28, 2020, in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. We are offering two Tribal College Faculty Fellowships in the amount of $1,250 each.

Featuring more than 500 sessions focusing on teaching practices, writing and literacy programs, language research, history, theory, information technologies, and professional and technical communication, the annual CCCC Convention provides a forum for thinking, learning, networking, and presenting research on the teaching and learning of writing. With this fellowship, CCCC hopes to create new opportunities for tribal college faculty members to become involved in CCCC and for CCCC to carry out its mission of serving as a truly representative national advocate for language and literacy education.

How to Apply: By November 15, 2019, please submit an application letter (on institutional letterhead) describing who you are as a teacher and what you teach at your tribal college, what your research interests are, and what you hope to gain from the experience of attending CCCC (how it could help you in your teaching or research). Send your application letter to the CCCC Liaison at cccc@ncte.org.

Selection Criteria: A selection committee will review applications for the Tribal College Faculty Fellowship and award the fellowships based on overall quality of the application letter. You do not need to be a presenter at CCCC in order to qualify for this award.

Call for Submissions for the 2020 CCCC Outstanding Dissertation Award in Technical Communication: Dissertations will be evaluated by the following five criteria: originality of research, contribution the research makes to the field, methodological soundness of the approach used, awareness of the existing research in the area studied, and overall quality of the writing. The 2020 award is open to dissertations completed during 2018 or 2019. A dissertation may be nominated only once during its two-year period of eligibility. Applicants must submit the following materials: (1) a letter of nomination from a dissertation committee member, preferably the chair, emphasizing the significance of the research for technical communication studies; (2) an extended abstract (approximately 250 words); and (3) a copy of the dissertation. Send materials by October 15, 2019, to CCCC Outstanding Dissertation Award in Technical Communication Selection Committee at cccc@ncte.org.
