Thank You to Our Reviewers

The editorial team at English Education (Tara Star Johnson, Lanette Jimerson, Shea Kerkhoff, and David Premont) would like to extend our heartfelt gratitude to the community of external reviewers who play an integral role in the journal’s success. Below is a list of our colleagues who have completed manuscript reviews from June 1, 2018, through the summer of 2019, which marks the end of this editorial team’s handling of new manuscripts. This fall we begin passing the baton to incoming editor Melanie Shoffner! Thanks to everyone on this list—and a special thank you for those marked with an asterisk* (indicating two reviews) or two asterisks (indicating three or more reviews). We are so appreciative of your commitment to supporting and refining others’ scholarship; may your investment in the field return tenfold!
