Call for Manuscripts/ Future Issues

The English Leadership Quarterly, a publication of the NCTE Conference on English Leadership (CEL), seeks articles of 500–3,000 words on topics of interest to those in positions of leadership in departments (elementary, secondary, or college) where English is taught. Informal, first-hand accounts of successful research, teaching, and learning activities related to themes of upcoming issues are encouraged. Themes of upcoming issues include:

February 2016: Teacher Leadership

(deadline November 15, 2015)

(see call, p. 5)

April 2016: Digital Dilemmas, Digital Delights

(deadline January 15, 2016)

(see call, p. 8)

August 2016: Approaches to Social Justice in the ELA Classroom

(deadline May 15, 2016)

(see call, p. 19)

Submission Guidelines: 1) Manuscripts should address the theme listed in the call for manuscripts for that issue. 2) Manuscripts should be double-spaced with 1-inch margins in 12-point font. 3) Manuscripts should follow the current edition of the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association. 4) Manuscripts should be accompanied by a cover letter that includes the theme the article addresses, a bulleted list of key points the article addresses, author name(s), affiliation, work address, work phone number, fax number, and email address. Manuscripts will not be reviewed without the cover letter. Email a copy of your manuscript and a cover letter to abramselq@gmail.com. Make sure that when sending your electronic submission, you indicate in the subject line of the email the issue date for which you are submitting (e.g., August 2015 ELQ). ●
