Grammar to Get Things Done offers a fresh lens on grammar and grammar instruction, designed for middle and secondary preservice and inservice English teachers. It shows how form, function, and use can help teachers move away from decontextualized grammar instruction (such as worksheets and exercises emphasizing rule-following and memorizing conventional definitions) and begin considering grammar in applied contexts of everyday use.

Modules (organized by units) succinctly explain common grammatical concepts. These modules help English teachers gain confidence in their own understanding while positioning grammar instruction as an opportunity to discuss, analyze, and produce language for real purposes in the world. An important feature of the text is attention to both the history of and current attitudes about grammar through a sociocultural lens, with ideas for teachers to bring discussions of language-as-power into their own classrooms. THE FIRST CHAPTER

2017 ANNUAL CONVENTION
St. Louis, MO | NOVEMBER 16–19

“TEACHING OUR STUDENTS TODAY, TOMORROW, FOREVER: RECAPTURING OUR VOICES, OUR AGENCY, OUR MISSION”

2016 was amazing . . . now join us for 2017!

Our past, our story, has been a long one, and now time demands we reflect on and rewrite our present and future. No one can better tell the story of our passion, dedication, and commitment to our profession and to our students than we ourselves. It is we who prepare students to live, think, and make meaning long after the last school door is closed. It is we upon whom our students depend to prepare them with lifelong literacy. NCTE’s 2017 Convention, The First Chapter, and our series of Town Halls allow us and our students to begin an ongoing conversation about who we are, where we are going, why, and how we will continue on our mission together. Come join us.
