The Little Seagull Handbook
Richard Bullock, Francine Weinberg
Like all pocket handbooks, the Little Seagull helps students document and edit what they write. But unlike any others, it helps them with the specific kinds of writing they are routinely assigned: arguments, analyses, narratives, reports, and more. Spiral-bound—and in a digital format for use on smartphones and desktops.

“They Say / I Say” with Readings 2e
Gerald Graff, Cathy Birkenstein, Russel Durst
The best-selling text/reader on academic writing, now in a new edition with an anthology of 44 readings that will provoke students to think—and write—about five important issues: Is Higher Education Worth the Price? Is Pop Culture Actually Good for You? Is Fast Food the New Tobacco? Why Does It Matter Who Wins the Big Game? What’s Up with the American Dream?

Back to the Lake: A Reader for Writers 2e
Thomas Cooley
A fresh take on the rhetorical modes, showing how they are used in texts of all kinds—and that they are central to all the writing, speaking, and thinking that we do. Now with 34 new readings, a chapter on academic writing, and editorial apparatus that explicitly links the readings to the writing instruction.

The Norton Reader 13e
Linda Peterson, John Brereton, Joseph Bizup, Anne Fernald, Melissa Goldthwaite
The Norton Reader has introduced millions of writing students to the essay as a genre. Still the best-selling thematic reader, and the only one that also supports a genre-based approach, the new edition introduces a new generation of editors, almost 50 new essays, and a unique new website that allows readers to sort and search for readings by theme, genre, mode, keyword, and more.

With Bedford Select, you get everything you want, and only what you need.
Handbooks that work

Teachers don’t always have the time they need to answer the writing questions of each student individually. That's why grammar and composition handbooks are such an important tool. With a Bedford/St. Martin’s handbook, students can quickly find the information they need on their own whether they are editing their own writing or revising from a teacher’s comments.
INFORMATION FOR AUTHORS

TETYC publishes articles for two-year college teachers and those teaching the first two years of English in four-year institutions. We seek articles in all areas of composition (basic, first-year, and advanced); business, technical, and creative writing; and the teaching of literature in the first two college years. We also publish articles on topics such as staffing, assessment, technology, writing program administration, speech, journalism, reading, ESL, and other areas of interest.

TETYC publishes several regular features: Instructional Notes (short articles describing successful classroom practices); Reviews of books, software, and other nonprint materials; Readers Write (up to 1,000-word comments on published articles or professional issues); and What Works for Me (brief descriptions of successful classroom activities; 200–750 words). Announcements, such as a call for papers or information on an upcoming conference, and Poetry (40 lines maximum) are published on a space-available basis.

Where to Send

All submissions, except reviews of books and other professional materials, should be sent to Jeff Sommers, Editor, TETYC, English Department, Main Hall, West Chester University, 700 S. High Street, West Chester, PA 19383. If you have questions or need further information, you may consult the TETYC Web site at www.ncte.org/journals/tetyc or contact the editor by phone (610-436-2916), or by email at TETYC@wcupa.edu. Announcements may be submitted by email (TETYC@wcupa.edu). TETYC encourages publication by first-time authors. The editor invites inquiries about potential articles or manuscripts in progress and is willing to assist in developing projects for the journal.

Submission Guidelines

Authors should submit manuscripts electronically in MS Word to TETYC@wcupa.edu. An accompanying email should contain the author’s name, address, work and home phone numbers, fax number, and email address. The author’s name should not appear on any pages of the manuscript. The accompanying email must also include a statement that the article has not been published and is not under consideration elsewhere. For submission through the US mail, email the editor at TETYC@wcupa.edu for instructions.

Feature articles should be between 3,000 and 6,500 words; Instructional Notes, from 1,200 to 4,000 words. All pages should be numbered. Beneath the article title on the first page should be a one-sentence descriptor of the article. Longer essays should provide at least one level of internal headings. All documentation should be in text, following the latest MLA Style Manual. A works-cited list in MLA style should follow the article. Excessive documentation and long discursive notes should be avoided. Articles, reviews, instructional notes, and poems are all submitted for blind review by a minimum of two outside readers. Decisions on other material are generally made by the editorial staff. The editor makes final decisions regarding all manuscripts based on reviewers’ recommendations, usually within three months.

Book Reviews and Reviews of Nonprint Materials

TETYC encourages reviews of recently published, innovative print and digital texts by two-year college faculty, including professional books, textbooks, hypertexts, Web texts, and software. Please send your review or queries to Jeffrey Klausman, Review Editor, TETYC, at jklausma@whatcom.ctc.edu.
