Students who are employed in a paid teaching position on less than a half-time basis are eligible for student membership. Student members do not vote in NCTE elections, but receive journals and other benefits at reduced prices. Eligibility for the student rate is capped at five years (with the exception of members who are able to demonstrate that they are full-time students and are not engaged in paid teaching more than one-half time. Please contact Customer Service at membership@ncte.org with any questions).
