

Kindergarteners in Fanny Roman's class at T.A.L.E.S. in Queens, New York, learn the routines and expectations of the writing workshop early in the year, enabling them to work independently and in small groups to write pattern books about their playground. See p. 23.

TURN THE PAGE

CONTENTS

- 6
Conversations in Poetry
Albuquerque High Poetry Club Helps Young Writers Find Their Voices
- 9
The Armor of Lifelong Literacy
Jocelyn A. Chadwick on Our Mission
- 10
Deep Reading
Making a Case for the Pleasures of Difficult Reading at the College Level
- 15
Jason Reynolds: A Book That "Gave Me Permission"
(Excerpt from a 2017 NCTE Convention Interview)
- 16
Let Your Voice Be Heard!
NCTE Elections
- 17
Convention Snapshots
- 18
Cultivating New Voices among Scholars of Color
- 19
The Key to Staying Fresh?
Be Willing to Explore New Territory
- 23
Proud Kids, Powerful Writing Instruction
Tales from T.A.L.E.S.
- 28
Qualities of Anti-Racist Curricula
- 30
Making a Space for Self-Care
- 31
Becoming More Mindful about Technology

For upcoming NCTE deadlines and event details, visit bit.ly/NCTE-to-do

THE COUNCIL CHRONICLE

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR
Emily Kirkpatrick

DIRECTOR OF COMMUNICATIONS
Jenna Fournel

MANAGING EDITOR
Felice Kaufmann

NCTE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

President: Jocelyn A. Chadwick
President-Elect: Franki Sibberson
Vice President: Leah Zuidema
Elementary Representative-at-Large:
Jessica Martell
Middle Level Representative-at-Large: Aurelia Dávila de Silva
Secondary Section Representative-at-Large: Valerie Taylor

Chair, Elementary Section: Kathryn Whitmore
Chair, Middle Level Section: Christopher Lehman
Chair, Secondary Section: Shekema Silveri
Chair, College Section: Shelley Rodrigo
Chair, TYCA: Jeffrey Andelora
Chair, CCCC: Carolyn Calhoun-Dillahunt
Associate Chair, CCCC: Asao B. Inoue
Chair, CEE: Mollie V. Blackburn
Chair, CEL: Heather Rocco
President, WLU: Roxanne Henkin